Why Jesus come? To call out of the world a people for His name.

keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, Protect them by the power of your name.

that they may be one, as we are. Protect these believers in order that they might experience a oneness of spirit like you and I have, Father.

We are aliens.

We belong to a different world.

Delivered from the power of darkness, and translated into the kingdom of his dear Son: Colossians 1:13

When tempted to sin-- claim our citizenship.

Phillips: The world likes to reduce everything to its own mediocrity. It demands conformity. It likes to reduce everything to room temperature. We are not to be too hot or too cold. We are not to rock the boat. If we do, the world will turn nasty....Jesus rocked the boat; he refused to conform. The world could not pour him into its mold. He was too good, too clever, too brave, too honest, too different. So the world murdered him. Now it reaches out its bloodstained hand to us. We are expected to shake hands with the world over the blood of Jesus. ...Sooner or later the world will treat us as it treated him, and for the same reasons...

John 17:17

Our mission: sent into the world.

Our attitude toward the world not that of isolation or withdrawal.

Separated--not isolated

Hughes: We are all susceptible to this. It is possible to go womb to tomb in a hermetically sealed container with fish stickers.We need to ask ourselves honestly if we have functionally removed ourselves from the world. Christ prays that we will not.
