

Jonathan Made a Covenant with the House of David

1 Sam 19:18-20:42

1 Sam 19:18 Naioth, a community in Ramah where school of _____ located.

Naioth or Nevaioth means “_____” or “lodgings”.

Archaeologists say a city of _____,

David all-alone now.

His supporters are helpless to aid him

Psa 121:1-8 Psa 46:1-7

1 Sam 19:19-20

One of _____ and strangest sights in Bible.

Dispatch of _____ and army officials sent out by Saul, going to Naioth to capture David.

Holy Spirit comes upon messengers--start prophesying

Recipients of Holy Ghost _____.

Prophesying: predict _____; proclaim _____ of God.

Powell: Then, suddenly came the sound of the heavenly anthem, and the arresting officers came to an abrupt halt.

1 Sam 19:21 Saul sends third group...they _____.

1 Sam 19:22-24 Day and night—God kept him in chains, 'till David was got out of _____.

Is Saul also among the prophets? ... he made Saul into some sort a prophet, that he might make David a _____.

and lay down naked

Jamieson, F, B --that is, divested of his armor and outer robes--in a state of _____. Thus God, in making the wrath of man to praise Him, preserved the lives of all the prophets, frustrated all the purposes of Saul, and preserved the life of His servant.

Ivor Powell, An arrogant, stubborn monarch, who was determined to assassinate David, succeeded only in losing his _____. Saul “lay down naked all day and all night” and was probably despised by his followers.

God knows how to _____ men—not our job.

1 Sam 20:1 Samuel encouraged David to _____.

- Tendency to lean too much on _____.
- Sensed God wanted to stir nest of David
- God saw David need to be familiar with _____.

Powell: He would have to be acquainted with the terrain—how and where to retreat or advance—and such knowledge would never have been acquired had he remained with his aged friend. Some lessons are only learned in the school of experience. Samuel was aware of this face, but David was not.

Now, David flees to friend, _____.

David asks 3 questions:

What have I done?

What is mine iniquity?

What is my sin before thy _____, that he seeketh my life?

Observe David in spirit of fright and _____.

Getz: David's problem was that he didn't trust God to protect and deliver him. He had lost _____ on the past. What about 'the lion,' 'the bear' and 'the giant Goliath'? Seemingly, he even ignored what had just transpired in Ramah, when God intervened and protected him from Saul. Lost in a maze of his current circumstances, he proceeded to take matters into his own hands. The results were tragic!"

1 Sam 20:2 No way are you going to die, David.

My father does nothing without telling me _____.

1 Sam 20:3 Your father knows I have become _____ in your eyes.

Jonathan, I am only a step away from _____.

Is David losing his _____ in the Lord?

Is God causing David to rely less on _____ and more on Him?

Saul hated David and wanted him _____.

1 Sam 20:4 Jonathan willing to place life on _____ to save David.

The occasion would thus be a grand one."*

Friends and _____ come from near and far and gather together to celebrate appearance of new moon.

In _____ this was celebrated.

1 Sam 20:6-7 Sound a little odd of David?

1 Sam 17:37; 45-47 Just because you trusted the Lord _____ in conquering giants doesn't mean you will now!

Don't rely on your conquered Giants of _____ to give you victory today.

David has forgotten the _____ of his victory.

Asking Jonathan to tell a lie for him.

Begin to see _____ in David's character.

Conflicts _____ real character.

Trials _____ character (not create character).

Question: Is it ever right to do wrong in order to do right? Is it ever right to lie?

Deceit leads to _____ deceit

1 Sam 20:8-9 If I had one hint that my father is planning to kill you, I will immediately _____ you.

1 Sam 20:10 Who going to let me know if your father is _____ at me?

1 Sam 20:16 May God destroy all your _____.

1 Sam 20:17 David, please make sure your vow of friendship to me

1 Sam 20:18-19 Day after tomorrow... toward . evening...Go to same place where you were _____ and wait by pile of stones....

1 Sam 20:20 I will do target practicing.

Shoot 3 arrows to side of pile of _____

1 Sam 20:21 If hear me say to boy, they are on this side, this let you know everything _____

1 Sam 20:22 If say to young man, go a bit farther....know that need to leave immediately.

1 Sam 20:23 Regarding promises we made to each other-- May Lord help us keep them.

His comments to David about their friendship are not _____.

1 Sam 20:24-26 Saul _____ on first day.

Thought David ceremonially unclean.

1 Sam 20:27-30 do not I know... Do you believe I am ignorant of your desire for David to be king in your place?

Had to tell David the _____.

Left table in rage.

Refused to eat meat all day.

1 Sam 20:35- 42 Covenant last throughout _____.

God causing David to rely less on _____ and more on Him?

God knows how to humble men—not our job

Just because you trusted the Lord _____ in conquering giants doesn't mean you will now!

David, willing to lie....

Don't rely on your conquered Giants of _____ to give you victory today.

Today is a new day. A new venue. A different battlefield.

What do we see here? David has forgotten the _____ of his victory.
