1 Sam 21:10

FB Meyer: As soon as Sabbath was over he left the spot, and hurriedly struck out across the hills in a southwesterly direction until he cut the deep depression of the valley of Elah, where he had achieved the great victory of his life. Ten miles beyond lay the proud Philistine city of Gath that at that time had sent its champion forth in all the pride of his stature and strength. Behind, David had left an implacable foe. What worse fate could await him at Gath than that which threatened him each hour he lingered within the limits of Judah! He therefore resolved to make the plunge, probably hoping that the shepherd boy of years ago would not be recognized in the mature warrior, or that the Philistines would be glad to have his aid in their wars against his countrymen.

Gath: city of Philistines, _____ of Israel.

One of 5 most important cities of _____.

Powell: ...Poor man, he was running away from his problems, and difficulties are seldom removed by such action. In more senses than one, the fugitive had turned his back on the sanctuary. His actions had left Nob in shambles; his stupidity eventually stained its streets with the blood of God's priests (1 Sam. 22:16-19). At that time David probably believed that he had reached the end of his career and considered, as did Jonah, that the safest thing to do was to _____ away. It is extremely fortunate for both men that they failed to outrun God!

...when every one of your crutches is removed, things begin to erode. As the erosion continues, you begin to _____ differently. And then you begin to replace those thoughts with strange thoughts. And then you begin to lose sight of the truth. And then you hit _____.

1 Sam 21:14-15

Mad: to rave through _____

Even _____ of his enemies don't want him around.

Swindoll: David had a position and he lost it. He had a wife and he lost her. He had a wise counselor, and he lost him. He had a friend, and he lost him. He had self-respect, and he lost it. Not unlike Job, it hit him with such back-to-back force, his head must have spun for hours. There might be centuries between us and David, but this man and his experiences are more relevant than ever in our times. One of those is the very familiar experience of leaning on others, other people and other things, rather than leaning on the _____. David knew what it meant to have the crutches stripped away, and so do we.

David at the bottom.

3 of his schemes:

- Tell Saul I went to Bethlehem to celebrate the new moon feast with my family.
Result: He and Jonathan become _____ for good.
- I am here at the temple on a mission of the king. Feed me and my men...
Result: 85 priests _____ and whole city wiped out.
- I am a crazy man scrabbling on the door of your courtroom.
Result: Poor testimony before king of Gath

Don't forget:

1. It is Always _____ to turn to God. 1 John 1:9
2. Being Responsible means _____ God.
Getz: ...trusting God doesn't mean we are not responsible. When David took on Goliath, he had a plan. But that plan was born in prayer and under girded by faith. David knew he could do nothing without God's help. Furthermore, at that time David was straightforward and honest. He gave glory and honor to God.

Blaiklock: David was a man after God's heart because he knew _____, because he could bow with humility beneath chastening, and because his life fed on faith in a grand unfolding plan.
